In accordance with the Public Company Accounting Reform and Investor Protection Act of 2002 (commonly known as the Sarbanes-Oxley Act), the Kentucky Library Association (henceforth, KLA) has developed a conflict of interest policy in order to ensure that members of the KLA Board are aware of their legal obligation of loyalty to KLA in that the financial interests of KLA should be the primary goal of all members of the KLA Board, especially above their own.

Each member of the KLA Board must sign the KLA Conflict of Interest Statement, which is found in Appendix Q.

Should a member of the KLA Board have a conflict of interest at any time, he or she will be excluded from discussions and votes in areas related to that conflict of interest.

Furthermore, the KLA Board has the right to request a member of the KLA Board to remove his- or herself from the KLA Board should a conflict of interest be determined by the KLA Board to be so great as to necessitate the removal of that individual from the KLA Board.

VII. Whistleblower Protection Policy

Full details regarding KLA's Whistleblower Protection Policy are found in Appendix R.

APPENDIX P – KLA STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES FOR SPEAKERS (rev. 6/10/2010)

These standards and guidelines are intended to provide guidance to speakers at events sponsored by KLA. Registrants attend conferences to gather information that can help them do their own jobs more effectively.

To achieve this result for our members and guests, KLA desires that speakers and moderators:

- Have a significant knowledge and expertise of the subject area
- Keep presentations relevant to members of the audience and the specific focus of the event.
- Behave in a respectful manner towards all conference attendees, volunteers and vendors

The Kentucky Library Association is constantly striving to upgrade the quality of its conference programs. You can assist us in this quest by adhering to our philosophy that all conference presentations be educational and non-commercial. Our attendees desire and expect all subject matter to be presented in an objective manner. Sales pitches are not acceptable and ultimately not in the speaker's own best interest. It is also not acceptable to make disparaging remarks about a business or product.

GUIDELINES FOR SPEAKERS

Before Presentation

Please arrive at the designated location at least 15 minutes prior to the scheduled time. This will help insure that you have the equipment you need and that your session begins on time.

Speakers are encouraged, but not required, to provide participants with bibliographies or handouts where appropriate. Please ensure handouts are provided to the session monitor before the presentation begins.

It is strongly encouraged that speakers dress in appropriate professional attire during presentations.

Please inform the audience of how you wish to handle questions, either throughout the presentation or at the end.

Major commercial affiliations of a speaker (relevant to the presentation) are to be communicated clearly in information provided by the speaker to KLA to put in the conference program, during the presentation, and in any printed material given to the participants.

In the event that an emergency should prevent a speaker from presenting a session, KLA strongly encourages him or her to notify KLA immediately, and, to the best of their ability, attempt to provide a substitute to fill the vacancy.

During the Presentation

Please use the microphone (and please speak directly into it) even if you think everyone can hear you.

Please repeat each question from an attendee before answering it even if you think everyone heard the question.

Speakers should avoid the use of language that could be construed as vulgar, inappropriate, sexist or as derogatory toward any group.

Presentations shall be limited to professional topics and shall be free from inappropriate humor, sales pitches and other assertions singularly advantageous to the speaker or their organization, and expression of religious, political, philosophical, or other beliefs.

Speakers are encouraged, but not required to allow their session to be taped at the request of participant(s) or at the request of the Conference Planning Committee.

Please provide contact information to attendees who wish to obtain more information.

Please ensure that your session ends on time. Your session monitor will help you keep track of time.
